

ALWAYS Collect From Breeder

- At this point, you should have visited the Breeder's premises at least once before
- We advise that you always collect the puppy from the Breeder's premises, but this is PARTICULARLY important if for some reason you have not had the chance to visit before collection
- Never agree to collect the puppy from a car park, motorway services or similar